

The screenshot shows the website's header with the 'agrifood careers' logo and navigation links: HOME, YOUTH, PARENTS, ADVISERS, TEACHERS, NEWS. A secondary navigation bar includes [ Contact :: Site Map :: Login ].

The main content area is divided into three columns:

- Left Column: A vertical list of interest-based links: I Like Working With My Hands, I Want To Work Outdoors, I Like To See Things Grow, I Love Animals, I Want To 'Save The World', I Like Variety, I Love Sport, I Want To Travel, I Want To Be My Own Boss, and I Enjoy Science & Maths.
- Middle Column: A 'Youth' section with a silhouette image of people. It contains three paragraphs of text: one for those unsure after school, one for those who have already decided, and one for those who already know their path. It also includes a paragraph about finding subjects and a link to 'CITLES ISLAND' with a cartoon illustration of people.
- Right Column: A 'RURAL SKILLS AUSTRALIA' logo, an 'ONTRACK' logo, and text promoting video case studies and career videos. It lists categories: Livestock & Processing, Horticulture & Viticulture, Agriculture, and Services & Management. It also includes links for 'Career Videos', 'Subjects', 'What Can I Do Right Now?', and 'Where Do I Find Out About Further Study and Work?'. A final paragraph mentions profiles on 'Landlearn' and a story of 'Bill' and 'Olivia'.

This website provides a lot of links to good agrifood career information. The sample page shown here is one part of the whole site.

Agrifood is the name given to the Australian employment sector that is involved with food, fibre and animal production. It is closely interwoven with the environment as agrifood depends on the sustainability of natural resources. Every day you eat, wear or use something produced by the Australian agrifood sector. Up to 880,000 people work in the Agrifood sector which is comprised of more than 140,000 separate enterprises.